NSS volunteer's orientation Report 2023-24

Name of Teacher: Prof. Gujar Sushilkumar

Day & Date: Saturday 30th September 2023

Time: 10.30 to 12

Topic: National Service Scheme volunteer's orientation program

Useful to Criteria: 5th and 7th

Beneficiaries: 35

On behalf of the National Service Scheme Department, a lecture on 'National Service Scheme and Today's Youth' was organized to inaugurate the National Service Scheme program and educate the college youth. College Dr. Prabhanjan Chavan said that the emblem of the National Service Scheme is the wheel. This Chakra is taken from the Sun Temple at Konark. The eight saws in this chakra are symbolic of the eight pharaohs. That means the youth should be alert 24 hours a day. Its colour is red, symbolizing the flowing blood of the youth. Surrounding the chakra is the colour blue, which is considered a symbol of peace. Along with this cycle, the motto of the National Service Scheme is 'Not me but you'. But when the youth works for the society, it benefits the entire society i.e. the students. This scheme can benefit students from city level to national and international level. It helps in overall development of students. A National Service Yojana student does manual labour work such as building dams, cleaning, preparing sinkholes to bring dignity to labour. Labour prestige is maintained through it. Volunteers of Rashtriya Seva Yojana participate in various social awareness rallies and discussions. This will boost their intelligence. Therefore, a student is formed in the National Service Scheme while serving the interests of the society. Who stands as a strong-conscious citizen of tomorrow! Students learn a lot from the camps. Talent, writing skills, communication skills are developed in it. A person who has done good work in the National Service Scheme can get a certificate at the college, university, state and national level as well.

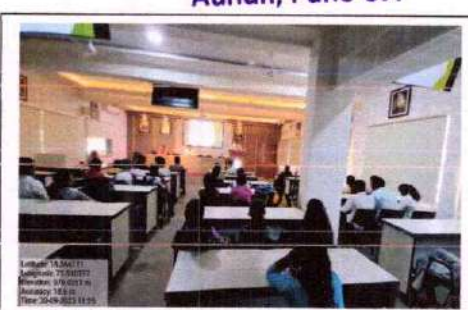

Principal Dr. Arun Andhale supported the programme. Dr Ramesh Randive given presidential speech Dr. Reshama Divekar was present, Gujar Sushilkumar coordinate the programme. 35 Volunteer Participated in the activity.

'Induction Program'
Held on 27th and 28th July, 2023 at 10.00 am
Report

Date- 29th July, 2023

Introduction-

An Induction Program of Women Development Cell was conducted to all students of the college. College successfully conducted the Induction Programme for the academic year 2023-24, aimed at welcoming and orienting the new students of FYBCOM, FYBA, FYBVOC, and FYBBA (CA) courses. The programme was held on two separate dates - 27th July 2023 for FYBCOM and FYBVOC, and 28th July 2023 for FYBBA (CA) and FYBA. Information was given about the activities carried out under Women Development Cell for the girl students in the college. Similarly, the coordinator imparted the information about available facilities to girl students.

Objectives-

1. To aware girls students about activities for girl students by Women Development Cell Committee.
2. To introduce what other facilities are available for girl students in the College.

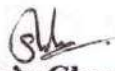

Briefing of the Program-

An Induction Program on 'Women Development Cell' was organized by the IQAC and Women Development Cell at the College on 27th and 28th July, 2023 at 10:00 am. Mrs. Asawari Shewale, Department of Commerce, was present for the program to guide the students. She guided the girls and shared the some activities taken from last five years. She also informed about other facilities provided by the college only for girl students. Total 134 students attended the two day program.

Outcomes of the Program-

After attending the program, the students were able to-

1. Know about activities taken for girl students in our college.
2. Received information of other facilities provided by the college for only girl students.
3. Realized the need of gender equity.
