The Department of English, Psycho-Socio Counselling Cell, and Department of Physical Education, organized a "Half-Day Workshop on Health Literacy: A Key to Happy Life" on March 1st 2024, from 10:00 AM to 12:00 PM. The event was sponsored by the Department of Lifelong Learning and Extension, Savitribai Phule Pune University, Pune

The workshop aimed to promote awareness about health literacy and its significance in leading a fulfilling life. It provided insights into various aspects of health, including physical, mental, and emotional well-being, through the lens of Ayurveda practices. Health Literacy workshops provide attendees with the critical thinking skills needed to develop materials that are intended to be patient- and public-facing. Health Literacy workshops can be designed to provide high level strategic concepts or to be more focused on the client's needs.

The resource persons for the workshop were Dr. Supriya Sanap-Andhale and Dr. Sneha Waghmode, both Ayurvedic practitioners with extensive expertise in holistic healthcare. Their sessions delved into the principles of Ayurveda, emphasizing the importance of maintaining a balanced lifestyle and adopting natural remedies for health issues.

The workshop was arranged on the topic counselling a need of time. The workshop was divided in two sessions. The first session was delivered by Mrs. Mrunal Khandagale a counsellor who delivered the need of counselling in present scenario. Her topic was interrelation of inner self and counselling. According to her, every human is victim of stress and nervousness. Each one is under stress due to cut throat race of globe. Therefore, there is an urgency to ponder over our own problem. Human being is deeply involved in materialistic happiness which lead to nervousness. Very few people converse with inner self. Therefore, meditation is one of the solutions for reducing stress. It is the need of the time.

The second session was of Hon. Dr. Rajendra More. He focused on student's momentary feelings and emotions. The mood swings which is faced by today's young generation. Students will face failures in their life but they should learn from their mistakes and succeed. Screen time is increased by 8-10 hours daily which affects mental health of students. Students have stopped reading and creativity is lost. When creativity is lost people get Depression and Anxiety.

Prin. Dr. Arun Andhale, was the president of the workshop who presided over the event and delivered an inspiring opening address, highlighting the significance of counselling in modern society. Prin. Dr. Arun Andhale's presence added a sense of authority and credibility to the proceedings.

The coordination of the workshop was efficiently handled by Dr. Savita Patil, Dr. Tanaji Hatekar, and Mr. Saurabh Kadam, who ensured smooth logistics and seamless execution of the sessions. Their meticulous planning contributed to the overall success of the event.

Ms. Sayali Gosavi moderated both the sessions and Mr. Gaurav Jadhav, along with Mr. Saurabh Kadam, constituted the organizing committee, responsible for the detailed arrangements and logistical support throughout the workshop. Their dedication and hard work were instrumental in creating a conducive environment for learning and interaction.

As the world entered the era of big data, the need for its storage also grew. It was the main challenge and concern for the enterprise industries until 2010. The main challenge and concern for the enterprise industries until 2010. The main focus was on building framework and solutions to store data. Now when Hadoop and other frameworks have successfully solved the problem of Storage, the focus and other frameworks have successfully solved the problem of storage, the focus has shifted to the processing of this data. Data Science is the secret source here. All the ideas which you see in Hollywood Sci-fi movies can actually turn into reality by Data Science. Data Science is the future of Artificial Intelligence. Date- 17th April 2024

Introduction-

Certificate Diploma Course in Method in Data Science Level –II for the BBA (CA) students has been completed successfully.

When it comes to data science, we need some sort of programming language or tool, like Python. Although there are other tools for data science, like R and SAS, we will focus on Python and how it is beneficial for data science in this article.

Python as a programming language has become very popular in recent times. It has been used in data science, IoT, AI, and other technologies, which has added to its popularity.

Python is used as a programming language for data science because it contains costly tools from a mathematical or statistical perspective. It is one of the significant reasons why data scientists around the world use Python. If you track the trends over the past few years, you will notice that Python has become the programming language of choice, particularly for data science. There are several other reasons why Python is one of the most used programming languages for data science, including:

Speed - Python is relatively faster than other programming languages

Availability - There are a significant number of packages available that other users have developed, which can be reused

Design goal - The syntax rules in Python are intuitive and easy to understand, thereby helping in building applications with a readable codebase

Objectives-

1. Introduction to Python Programming Language
2. Learning OOP in Python
3. Learning NumPy and sciPy
4. Learning Data Manipulation
5. Learning Data Visualization with Matplotlib

Learning Outcomes-After studying the course students will be able to

- Basics of Python for Data Analysis.
- Python libraries and Data Structures.
- Exploratory analysis in Python using Pandas.
- Data Munging in Python: Using Pandas.
- Building a Predictive Model in Python.

Introduction-

Advance Diploma Course in programming of Data Science Level-III for the BBA (CA) students has been completed successfully.

In a world of data space where organizations deal with petabytes and Exabyte's of data, the era of Big Data emerged, the essence of its storage also grew.

It was a great challenge and concern for industries for the storage of data until 2010.

Now when frameworks like Hadoop and others solved the problem of storage, the focus shifted to processing of data. Data Science plays a big role here.

All those fancy Sci-fi movies you love to watch around can turn into reality by Data Science.

Nowadays its growth has been increased in multiple ways and thus one should be ready for our future by learning what it is and how can we add value to it.

Without any hunches, let's dive into the world of Data Science.

After touching to slightest idea, you might have ended up with many questions like what is Data Science.

Why we need it? How can I be a Data Scientist?! etc.?

Objectives-

- Curiosity: If you are not curious, you would not know what to do with the data.
- Judgmental: It is because if you do not have preconceived notions about the things you wouldn't know where to begin with.
- Argumentative: It is because if you can argument and if you can plead a case, at least you can start somewhere and then you can learn from data and then can modify your assumptions.

Learning Outcomes-After studying the course students will be able to

- Understudies will foster important abilities to programmer.
- Understudies will exhibit capability with factual examination of information.

Useful to Criteria: III & V

Beneficiaries: 35

Briefing of Programme:

Department of English had organized A Workshop on Politeness: A Key to Modest Personality on 1st February 2024. Politeness and etiquette are key to building and maintaining positive relationships. Treating others with respect and courtesy can foster trust, cooperation, and loyalty in personal and professional relationships. The concept of Politeness was explained with the help of examples of A.G. Gardiner's Essay 'On Saying Please'.

Total 35 students were present for the workshop. In his essay, On Saying Please, A.G. Gardiner talks of the necessity and importance of being polite. Gardiner begins his essay with an account of a lift-man who threw out a passenger from the lift because he didn't say "Please." Bad manners and discourtesy are not legal offences and don't require a violent response. Civility in behavior needs to be sustained in the society. This alone would make us kind and tolerable to each other. Unlike the lift-man's violent response, the need is for politeness in the face of bad manners and bad behavior. This alone will give us spiritual victory. Students as a part of workshop were asked to write about their own experience and submit it to the department.

Dr. Savita Patil HoD of English and Prin. Dr. Arun Andhale Sir were of great support and motivation to the activity by department. He also appreciated and congratulated department for conducting it.
